

CLINIC is an equal opportunity employer. Below are available positions. Please note the submission deadlines.

CLINIC Jobs

Director of Advancement, Marketing & Communications (AMC): The Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc. (CLINIC) seeks a Director of AMC to provide leadership and direction in marketing, communications and resource development activities in order to 1) plan, develop and present a clear and consistent message and brand image for CLINIC; 2) build awareness and support for CLINIC among targeted audiences; and 3) develop and implement plans to attract and obtain the resources necessary to fulfill the agency's mission and support its program priorities. Specific responsibilities include: planning and implementing funding and marketing goals designed to maximize potential and build base of support; identifying and cultivating a portfolio of major donor and foundation prospects; planning fundraising/outreach events, and developing marketing materials. Qualified applicants should have a Bachelor's degree in related field (advanced degree and/or CFRE preferred); Five plus years in resource development/fund-raising and managing marketing/communications for non-profits. Knowledge of most current and proven approaches to donor appeals. Strong management, supervisory, communications, and interpersonal skills. Proven ability to prioritize, meet deadlines and work collaboratively on varying projects at many levels. Salary commensurate with experience. Excellent fringe benefits. Send cover letter, resume, references and fundraising writing sample by March 31, 2010 to Director of AMC Search, Human Resources, CLINIC, 415 Michigan Avenue, NE, 2nd Floor, Washington, DC, 20017 or fax to (202) 635-2649. No telephone calls. E-Mail: clinichr@cliniclegal.org. EOE.