WHO WE ARE

For 48 years, the National Immigration Project of the National Lawyers Guild (NIPNLG) has been providing top-notch technical assistance and legal support to immigration law practitioners, immigrant community groups, and all advocates seeking to defend the rights of noncitizens. We promote justice, fairness and equality in all areas of immigration law, the criminal justice system, and in social policies related to immigration. Since its founding, the National Immigration Project has served as a progressive resource for cutting-edge, advocacy-oriented legal support on issues critical to immigrant rights.

The National Immigration Project thrives upon a base of 1,500 members nationwide whose dues, support and tax-deductible contributions fuel its work.

BECOME A MEMBER

When you join the National Immigration Project, you become part of a vibrant community of attorneys, legal workers, grassroots organizers, and other leaders in the fight for immigrant rights. Attorneys frequently consult NIPNLG for its guidance on the rights of immigrants facing criminal penalties, incarceration, or removal, as well as other areas of legal expertise related to immigration law.
